ACTIVITY PROGRAM

1. PURPOSE: To repair crash-damaged U-2 Aircraft, Serial No. 349.
2. Description of Work or Services Required: Perform general aircraft repair including skin, frame, portions of major systems and auxiliary equipment to return this Article to a J-57 configured vehicle.
3. Expected Additional or Related Work or Services: Items damaged beyond repair and those reparable outside of Lockheed Aircraft Corporation zone of responsibility have not been determined. Having fallen in this questionable category, these are being returned to the Depot for condition as well as cost estimates by contractors concerned. Examples of such equipment are: antennas, "B" and Tracker Cameras, amplifiers, power supplies and harnesses.
4. Total Estimated Cost: (See para 3 above - not included in these costs.) $131,000 - All anticipated DPD Budget savings have been utilized to cover costs of other assignments not funded for during FY 1960, therefore, approval of this document should indicate the source of funding to permit the repair authorization to be executed.

5/5/60

Repair Cost	$ 92,000.00
Spares	25,000.00
Tip Tanks	14,000.00
TOTAL	$131,000.00
5. Delivery Schedule or Period of Performance: 15 weeks from date of approval to proceed.
6. Remarks: Funds were programmed to repair and/or IRAN aircraft during FY 1960. The amount has been committed and obligated in total to cover repair to Article No. 360 plus various IRAN's. The small balance in the contract is insufficient to repair Article No. 349.

NOTE FOR THE RECORD

Although Mr. Bissell signed this on about 6 May 1960, he withdrew his signature as of 7 May on the grounds that we do not wish to spend money on an item such as this, at least until the air clears. I informed Chief, DPD/Admin of this situation 9 May 1960.
